

Pack Expo Las Vegas

a preview

Conference to host 1,350 processing and packaging exhibitors

Pack Expo Las Vegas will be held September 27-29 at the Las Vegas Convention Center in Las Vegas, NV. PMMI, The Association for Packaging and Processing Technologies, has organized the event and will host more than 1,350 exhibitors focusing on new technology in the processing and packaging industries. The event will feature full-scale equipment demonstrations in every hall of the convention center. Free educational opportunities will also be offered, including more than 70 30-minute learning sessions, roundtable discussions on industry issues, and presentations at the expo's Reusable Packaging Learning Center. Registrants will have on-demand access to the learning sessions after the show concludes.

The event will offer five dedicated pavilions to include: the processing zone that features food and beverage manufacturers, the package printing pavilion, the containers and materials pavilion, the reusable packaging pavilion, and the confectionery pavilion. There will also be other special exhibits for attendees, including a packaging innovation showcase and the future innovators robotics showcase.

Pack Expo is colocated with the Healthcare Packaging Expo. The Healthcare Packaging Expo will feature packaging innovations from the top pharmaceutical companies in biological and biopharmaceuticals; cannabis products; contract manufacturing; medical devices; nutraceutical, vitamin, and dietary supplements; over-the-counter products; and more. The healthcare expo is expected to feature more than 850 exhibitors.

In addition to the on-site event, organizers are providing Pack Expo Xpress, a limited digital-only option for those unable to attend the in-person event. Pack Expo Xpress offers access to a show planner account, digital showrooms, matchmaking with suppliers, and on-demand access to sessions following the show.

Attendees can download the Pack Expo Las Vegas app at www.packexpolasvegas.com/app and use the show planner to identify which exhibitors to visit. The organizers offer Las Vegas hotel bookings through the event website at www.packexpolasvegas.com/book-hotel. T&C
